TWO MEN DIED FOR A WOMAN

A Policeman Charged with Trying Becker-Fescoke Tragedy Caused to Kill His Mother-in-Law.

WLeary Denies It and Declares It Is a Conspiracy.

He is Held Without Bail to Await the Result of Her Injuries.

Acting Capt. Brennan, of the Madison street station, and Policeman Hugh Copan, arraigned in Essex Market Police Court this morning, six prisoners charged with having been in some way implicated in the shooting last night of Mrs. Margaret White, sixty-eight years old, of 218 Monroe street.

One of the prisoners was Patrolman Dennis O'Leary, of Sergt, Brennan's command, a son-in-law of the wounded woman, and the others are relatives, with one exception, James Connelly, who boards with the White family. The other prisoners were Mrs. O'Leary, the policeman's wife, a pretty young roman; Timothy and James White, Mrs O'Leary's brothers, aged thirty three and and flourished the weapon in a drunken care.

"We all ran from the room for our lives," said White "but mother, who had come down, too, was shot. I was out of the room at the time."

As to the wounds on O'Leary's head, Capt. Brennan says that O'Leary received them while chasing thieves a week ago, and as a result had been on the slick list since.

Eight minutes after the shooting Coaco, and as a result had been on the sick list since. Eight minutes after the shooting Cogan found O'Leary's pistol in the burear drawer, minus one cartridge.

Mrs. O'Leary, when sworn, claimed not to know anything about the shooting, but Mrs. Maggie White swore that she saw O'Leary go to the drawer, take out the revolver and fire. Old Mrs. White fell.

Justice Burke held O'Leary without ball to await the result of Mrs. White's holuries. The other prisoners were discussed, with the understanding that they must appear as witnesses at a hearing later.

Robbers Captured After a Fight. LOGANSPORT, Feb. 7.—Three masked high-marmen entered the drug store of J. E. Erwin day night and compelled the owner to hand over tile in cash and a gold watch and a revolver. They were located at Camden, twenty miles west of here on the Vandalia road and all were captured in a running fight in which the citizens participated. Guns, clube and knives were freely used.

Elsenstein Was Charged with Securing a Number of Canes.

Morris Eisenstein was acquitted in the Court of General Sessions to-day of the charge of forkery in the second degree. It was alleged he had signed the name of Corr & Burrell, merchants, to an order upon Weber & Co., calling for a large quantity of walking sticks. Webber & Co. gave the goods to a boy named Max Abrams, who presented the order.

On the trial to-day Abrams was called as a State's witness on behalf of the prosecution. He testified that the order was given him by Eisenstein, and that he gave the goods to him.

Mossis, Alfred & Charles Steckler, who appeared for the prisoner, completely broke down Abram's testimony, and also caused the other witnesses (called for the prosecution to contraded him. The lawyers then arrived for a direction of an old rected the purpose.

Frederick Poelker, night watchman for Smith, Gray & Co., clothiers, at One Hundred and Twenty-third street and Third avenue, sleeps in the rear of the etore. He was roused this morning at 10 o'clock by the breaking of the plate-glass window in the front of the store. He was roused this morning at least which was refused to $10,000, which was secured.

He was roused this morning at 10 o'clock by the breaking of the plate-glass window in the front of the store. He was three men cave with a quantity of clothing, which they had taken out of a large hole in the window.

Poelker gave Policemen Nash and Buckridge, of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, a fairly good description of the men, and the officers arrested three men an hour and a half later at Second avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street.

The men had two mackintoshes, two pairs of trougers and an overcoat, as well as a bag filled with cigars and tobacco. They were held for examination at Harlem Court to-day.
